

ESC VOLUNTEERING IN CULTURAL MANAGEMENT

IN MILANO, ITALY

SPAZIO
LUCE
MOVEMENTS

WHO WE ARE

Spazio Luce is a place for research about the movements of body and soul. It is open to every person of every age, to adults and to children.

Through music, dance, theatre, yoga and so much more, it welcomes everyone to share their passions and find a sense of wellbeing through their body-

VOLUNTEER'S TASKS

- Create materials for activities with children in the child psychology center;
- Help to take care of the working spaces;
- Support with reception work for dance and pilates workshops;
- Assist with the welcoming of members of the audience, and support in the logistical organisation of activities and events;
- Promote the activities through the website and social media;
- Create videos for online promotion and video projects;
- Support and promote Spazio Luce's network activities, seminars, courses, workshops;
- Develop new projects, workshops and activities.

TIMETABLE

Volunteers will generally work from Monday to Friday with activities both in the morning and afternoon/evening, for a maximum 36 hours per week. These hours will include 4h/week of activities with the coordinating organisation for the promotion of international opportunities.

During some weeks, volunteers will be expected to work on Saturday and Sunday to assist with the production of shows, or to assist with activities or workshops (one or two per month).

Volunteers will work for 5 days per week, with 2 consecutive days off. In Summer, due to school holidays the timetable may vary. Volunteers will gain 2 days of holiday per month.

Financial support and accommodation

Volunteers will share a flat in Milan, with shared double rooms, 2 bathrooms and an eat-in kitchen. The accommodation is provided by Associazione Joint and is located in a multicultural neighbourhood in the north of the city.

Volunteers will live in the apartment with other ESC volunteers.

Volunteers will receive pocket money to the value of 5 euros per day plus 160 euros per month to cover food expenses. The volunteers will also receive a monthly ticket covering transportation throughout the whole city of Milan.

The travel expenses incurred when arriving to (and when leaving) Milan, Italy will be reimbursed by the European Commission.
