VOLUNTEERING IN A HOUSING COMMUNITY FOR AT-RISK YOUTH

INFOPACK

HOSTING ORGANIZATION: Istituto Walden

LOCATION: Menfi, Italy

Casa di accoglienza Istituto Walden

The Walden Institute is a social cooperative that was founded in 1993 and since its creation the cooperative has managed various projects. Today it manages 2 housing communities for minors, one shelter for mothers and minors and the school assistance service for children affected by autism spectrum disorder; all services are located in Menfi and Sciacca.

The cooperative has always worked in the social sector focusing on knowledge, the experience of daily life, in order to remove the obstacles and in that way strengthen and consolidate the various cognitive and formative processes.

Since 2013, the cooperative has decided to join the International Volunteer projects with the aim of providing minors and mothers of the various structures a possibility to get closer to different cultures and traditions so as to help them grow and at the same time transmit to the volunteers a working experience that serves as personal and professional growth.
